

I Listen to K-LOVE because it provides a unique content of music and news that is not available on other stations in this area. Many in this community may not be able to replace this family friendly content if a K-LOVE station were to be replaced by an LPFM broadcaster. I think the content currently provided is important and beneficial to many families in this area.